Subject: Wheatlands Metro District - Thanks for your article ; Errata

Megan –

Thank you for your article on the collaborative work of the Wheatlands Metropolitan District and the YMCA of Metro Denver.

http://www.denverpost.com/aurora/ci_24646159/

There is one bit of material errata in the article: The Wheatlands Community Clubhouse is located at 6601 S. Wheatlands Parkway.

Wheatlands residents are aware that the YMCA has an administrative office within the Lakehouse at Southshore. However, the community facilities at 27151 E. Lakeview Ave. are owned and operated by our neighbors and friends in the community of Southshore. The Wheatlands Metro District has neither financial nor operational interest in the Lakehouse at Southshore.

That you published the Lakeview Ave. address is understandable, considering the information included on the “Clubhouse” page on the Wheatlands.org web site. We will improve the wording of the “Clubhouse” page on the Wheatlands.org web site to show that the Wheatlands Community Clubhouse is located on Wheatlands Parkway!

Apologies to you Megan, and to our friends and neighbors in Southshore, for this confusion.

Kind regards,

- Richard
